

SAVE THE DATE

SERVING ENGLISH LEARNERS IN A DISTANCE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

FREE-TO-VIEW TWO-PART WEBINAR*
MAY 15TH, 2020 | 1:00- 3:30pm EDT

PART I

Julia Martin and David Holbrook will cover the legal requirements related to providing services to ELs, in Title I, Title III, and Civil Rights that may be challenging to implement in a distance learning environment and ED's response to this crisis.. This part will conclude with a brief opportunity for questions from listeners.

Julia Martin

Legislative Director,
Brustein &
Manasevit, PLLC

David Holbrook

Executive Director,
NAELPA

Executive Director of Federal Programs and
State Relationships,
TransACT

PART II

A facilitated panel discussion.

Each panelist will receive one question for response related to best practices for supporting bilingual/multilingual/dual language education and educators in a distance learning environment. In addition, each panelist will have the opportunity to comment on the responses to questions that are addressed to other panelists. This part will also conclude with a brief opportunity for questions from listeners.

David Holbrook will serve as facilitator of the panel of experts listed below:

Roberta Miceli

Center for Applied
Linguistics (CAP)

Faridah Pawan

Teaching English to Speakers of
Other Languages
(TESOL)

Jobi Lawrence

ELPA21
(an EL Assessment Consortium)

Samuel Aguirre

WIDA
(an EL Assessment Consortium)

Louise Marks

National Association of ESEA of
State Program Administrators
(NAESPA)

Carol Salva

National Association of English
Learner Program Administrators
(NAELPA)

Margarita Pinkos

National Association of Bilingual Education
(NABE)

REGISTER AT ESEANETWORK.ORG

*There is no cost for the webinar, but you must sign up for a free account at ESEAnetwork.org to participate

Brought to you by:

