SUPPORTING ENGLISH LEARNERS IN THE SCIENCE OF READING, WRITING, AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

JUNE 13, 2023 in OXFORD, MISSISSIPPI

Dr. Monique Henderson and English Learners Engage's team of dynamic instructional coaches will provide practical, hands-on information that participants can use immediately to more effectively serve English learners — either in content area classrooms or EL classrooms.

This unique, one-day event will be broken down into the following focus areas:

- English Learners and best practices within the Science of Reading
- Strengthening English production for reluctant writers and speakers
- Boosting family engagement among English learner families
- Evidence-based practices from Dr. Henderson's popular, practical book "31 Things Your English Learners Want You To Know: Lessons from the Classroom"
