

THIRD ANNUAL AUTISM & NEURODIVERSITY CONFERENCE

February 15 & 16, 2024

William Carey University – Hattiesburg campus

William Carey University and TEAAM are once again partnering to host the Third Annual Autism and Neurodiversity Conference for educators, administrators, counselors, and parents of students with neurodiverse needs. This 2-day conference will be held on William Carey University's Hattiesburg campus on February 15 & 16, 2024, and will offer CEUs (and SEMIs if approved) for those interested. Sessions this year will include breakout sessions in addition to large seminar sessions.

The conference fee will be $100 which includes a continental breakfast, snacks, and lunch both days. Space will be limited to 200 people. Complete conference details will be emailed to attendees prior to the conference.
