

Register

STATE ELECTIONS 2024: UNDERSTANDING THE MECHANICS AND STRATEGY OF THE CONTEST FOR POWER

THE INN @ OLE MISS
APRIL 17-18, 2024

The Barbour Center for the Study of American Politics is hosting a 2 day conference on elections. This conference is focused on the upcoming federal elections. Participants will meet with experts and practitioners in the area of campaigns and elections. The focus will be on the mechanics and strategies utilized in organizing, funding, and leading a campaign. The goal is to send participants back to their classes with a wealth of new information and examples that can be utilized to animate discussions of politics and government for students. A creative classroom exercise will be demonstrated with the attendees for potential application in class.