

Dynamic summer learning at its best!
Four days of civic learning through the lens of history.

Where: American Village in Montevallo, AL
When: June 17-20, 2025

In a kickoff to America's 250th birthday — the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence — learn and have fun exploring 1775: Shots Heard Around the World.

Topics will include the Battle of Lexington and Concord, the Green Mountain Boys, the Battle of Bunker Hill, the Second Continental Congress and more.

Included in acceptance to the Institute:

- A single room at a nearby hotel
- Transportation from the hotel to American Village
- Food throughout the institute
- Amazing content with dynamic presenters and scholars
- Application sessions
- Up to 50 hours of professional learning

There is no other program like it!

- Applications open October 11, 2024; close March 1, 2025
- Capacity will be limited to 35, with a wait list
- Acceptances will be sent March 3, 2025
- After you have been accepted to the institute, you will be sent a registration link

Apply here:

For more information, contact Jeff L. Scott, Ph.D. Executive Director of Academic Operations, College of Education, Troy University. jscott235605@troy.edu, (205) 665-3535 extension 1049