WE ARE PASSIONATE ABOUT WHAT WE DO

The Principals' Institute at Mississippi College, housed within the College's Education Department, is dedicated to fostering the personal and professional growth of principals as educational leaders. Our mission is to enhance the quality of education by empowering school principals through advanced training and support. By equipping these leaders with the tools and strategies they need, we aim to positively impact the entire school community, ultimately benefiting the students and ensuring a brighter future for all children.

SPEAKERS

DAVID MEAD

David Mead is dedicated to bringing humanity back to work by helping leaders foster trust, connection, and well-being in their teams. With over 13 years of experience, he has worked with leaders worldwide, identifying key patterns among those worth following. After starting his career in corporate training in 2004, David joined Simon Sinek's team in 2009, where he spent a decade sharing Sinek's inspiring ideas through workshops and speaking engagements. In 2017, he co-authored Find Your Why with Sinek and Peter Docker, a practical guide that has sold over 400,000 copies and been translated into 25 languages.

Since 2019, David has focused on helping leaders apply these principles to their work environments. Through a simple framework, he empowers individuals at all levels to lead with genuine humanity, driving higher performance, innovation, and collaboration while improving retention and well-being. Having worked with over 350 companies across five continents, David brings a relatable approach to leadership, equipping teams with practical tools to create workplaces where people want to thrive, not just survive.

ANNETTE BREAUX

Annette Breaux is a highly engaging and informative author and speaker in education, known for her practical and impactful advice for teachers. Her presentations provide actionable techniques that teachers can implement immediately, strengthening relationships between educators and students. Administrators often report seeing positive changes in classrooms as soon as the following day. Drawing on her experience as a former classroom teacher, curriculum coordinator, and developer of Louisiana's acclaimed FIRST Program for new teacher induction, Annette emphasizes practicality and the profound impact teachers have on students' lives.

Annette specializes in student achievement, classroom management, and new teacher induction. She has co-authored works with Dr. Harry K. Wong and Dr. Todd Whitaker and written several best-selling books, including 101 Answers for New Teachers and Their Mentors and 50 Ways to Improve Student Behavior. Her signature warmth, humor, and heartfelt inspiration leave educators motivated and reminded of the nobility of their profession. Audiences consistently walk away with practical strategies, renewed passion, and a deeper appreciation for teaching.

STEVE BARKLEY

Steve Barkley, Chief Learning Officer and Executive Vice-President of PLS 3rd Learning, is internationally renowned for his expertise in facilitating change through teaching and coaching. With over 45 years in education, he specializes in guiding teams through continuous improvement via coaching, mentoring, and professional learning communities. Recently, his focus has been on leadership training, coaching skills, and setting teacher professional development goals centered on efficacy, agency, and accelerated learning. He emphasizes the importance of authentic, purposeful, and connected opportunities to support students' holistic growth.

For more than 30 years, Steve has served as a consultant to schools, teacher organizations, state education departments, and universities worldwide. His ability to connect with clients virtually has expanded his reach, allowing for personalized facilitation and coaching. Known as a master educator and motivational speaker, Steve is deeply knowledgeable about life in schools and serves as a catalyst for growth, modeling the principles he teaches.
